

International Norfolk Conference

Wednesday 21st March 2018

- 09:30 Registrations, refreshments and networking
- 10:00 Welcome - Professor Richard Harvey, Academic Director of Internationalisation, UEA
- 10:05 Introduction - Chris Snudden, Assistant Director, Children's Services, Norfolk County Council
- 10:15 Keynote speaker – Louise Swiniarski, Professor Emerita, School of Education, Salem State University, Salem, USA: The Importance of International & Collaborative Learning
- 10:35 Guest speakers from Belgium, China, Germany, Norway and Serbia offer brief snapshots of their education systems, with examples of effective international collaboration with Norfolk
- 11:35 Coffee/tea break
- 12:00 FIRST WORKSHOP – as registered
- 12:45 LUNCH – enjoy a buffet lunch; foyer displays and Music performed by members of Triorca, Norfolk's International Youth Orchestra
- 13:30 SECOND WORKSHOP – as registered
- 14:15 THIRD WORKSHOP – as registered
- 15:00 Plenary panel: addressing the Language teaching and learning challenge post-Brexit:
Baroness Shephard of Northwold; Gonzalo Capellan, Education Consul at the Spanish Embassy tbc; David Kennedy, Head Teacher, John Warner School, Buckinghamshire;
Prof. Harvey & Dr. Kim Ridealgh, University of East Anglia
- QUESTION & ANSWERS – NEXT STEPS FOR NORFOLK?
- 15:45 Closing remarks

Workshops

1. Global Citizenship in Schools (UEA)
2. Science, Art and Writing Project (SAW) - John Innes Centre and Shanghai, with Norfolk Primary Schools – Professor Anne Osbourn & Dr. Jenni Rant, Professor Louise Swiniarski
3. Making pedagogic connections - Belgium, Ghana, Germany, Norway, Serbia
4. Young persons' perspective on international links – European visiting students from Germany, Norway & Serbia
5. Opportunities for Norfolk teachers in China, and in Mandarin - Zhang Dasheng, Education Consultant; Peter Goddard, Director of Development, Norwich School